

Dear colleagues and friends,

I'm happy to inform you that the conference arrangements are progressing as planned, and I'm honoured to publish an updated version of our interesting conference program, featuring a top line up of highly sought speakers. We aim to confirm the rest of the speakers within the next few weeks, having received a good number of speaker proposals to choose from - many thanks for your active participation!

Take advantage of the competitive early-bird registration fees valid until 31st March 2010 and register today on our website <http://www.eventmanager.fi/register/entre-239>

On behalf of the organising committee, I'd also like to thank our famous advisory committee for participating in the conference preparations and making this remarkable international technology law summit to come true!

I'm looking forward to seeing you in Helsinki in June 2010!

Arto Linnervuo, IFCLA President

PS. Remember to check out the diverse social activities providing opportunities for enjoyable international networking.
